

creative multilingualism

Partnership for nature and people

Intersections of Language and Nature: Conservation, Documentation, and Access

Symposium
September 6-7, 2019
University of Pittsburgh

Friday 6th September 2019

- 9:00 am Registration/COFFEE
- 9:30 am Welcome and Introduction
- 10:00 am Keynote: Indigenous Voices
- 11:00 am COFFEE
- 11:15 am Panel: Indigenous Voices – How does traditional ecological knowledge contribute to the conservation of nature and language.
- 13:00 pm LUNCH
- 14:00 pm Posters
- 15:00 pm Workshop (Connolly Ballroom): Indigenous Voices
- 15:00 pm Workshop (University Club Ballroom): Language Documentation
- 15:00 pm Workshop (Conference Room B): Taxonomy and Naming
- 17:00 pm COFFEE
- 17:30 pm Panel: How can we better engage communities as stewards of their local cultures and environments?
- 18:30 pm RECEPTION – Carnegie Museum of Natural History (<https://carnegiemnh.org>)

Saturday 7th September 2019

- 9:00 COFFEE
- 9:30 Workshop (Connolly Ballroom): Language Documentation
- 9:30 Workshop (University Club Ballroom): Access
- 9:30 Workshop (University Club Ballroom): Biodiversity
- 11:15 COFFEE
- 11:30 Panel: How can we improve our understanding of global language and species distribution?
- 13:30 LUNCH
- 14:30 Film: Singing 'Bird': Carrying on the Kumeyaay Tradition
- 15:00 Panel: Creative Engagement
- 16:00 COFFEE and SNACK
- 16:30 Panel: Synthesis
- 18:30 Closing Remarks
- 19:15 SYMPOSIUM BANQUET
- 20:30 OPEN MIC.

Sunday 8th September 2019

Field Trip: National Aviary