

EXHIBIT OPENING CELEBRATION

Pahko'ora/Pahko'ola

Mayo and Yaqui Masks from the James S. Griffith Collection

Guest curated by Santiago Benton (Mayo) and Daniel Vega (Yaqui) in collaboration with Dr. Griffith and ASM

ARIZONA STATE MUSEUM

Saturday, October 26, 2019 | 10:30 a.m.–2:00 p.m. | FREE

- MEET the curators and go on exhibit tours
- HEAR Yaqui and Mayo languages
- WATCH Yaqui Pascola dances by Kolencia Oficio Achalim
- MAKE a tissue paper flower and other hands-on activities
- DANCE to lively norteño music of Los Hermanos Cuatro
- TALK with artisans, watch demonstrations, and purchase traditional Yaqui crafts

Teachers can earn up to 3.5 professional development hours. Contact: hci@email.arizona.edu, 520-626-3989 to register for classroom resources.

Arizona State Museum is located on the University of Arizona campus, just inside the Main Gate at Park Avenue & University Boulevard. 1013 E. University Boulevard. Convenient garage parking is available one block from the museum at either Euclid Avenue & Second Street or Tyndall Avenue & Fourth Street.

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA

ARIZONA STATE MUSEUM

statemuseum.arizona.edu/events

az HUMANITIES
EXPLORE. SHARE. EXPERIENCE.

Southwestern Foundation
For Education and Historical Preservation